NEWS OF THE WEEK.

Gathered from All Quarters.

WASHINGTON.

The war department has received cable advices which indicate that it will be impossible to save the cable ship Hooker and her cargo of supplies for the extension of the cable service about the Philippines.

A decision has been rendered by the comptroller of the currency to the effect that a volunteer who enlisted in the navy for the war with Spain and who was discharged at his own request before the expiration of his term, is entitled to the extra pay provided in the act of March 3, 1899.

Much pressure has been brought to bear on the administration to organize a colored regiment for service in the Philippines. The matter is still under consideration by Secretary Root, no decision having been reached. If such a regiment is organized it will be officered by colored men.

The bureau of engraving and printing has submitted to the secretary of the treasury two designs for a new $5 silver certificate. One has upon its face a vignette of Washington and the other of Jefferson. It is likely the former will be selected, owing to the superiority of the workmanship upon it.

The postmaster general has ordered the discontinuance of the post office at Peck, Minn., because of the recent whitecapping of the postmaster there.

EAST.

The chairman of the committee on invitation of the G. A. R. encampment, which opens at Philadelphia September 4, has received President McKinley's acceptance of the invitation to attend the reunion.

The statement is made that the net profits of the beef trust in New York City alone have increased about $21,000 a week from the advance of two cents a pound in the price of beef. The concerns in the beef trust now get about $14 per head more for beef than two weeks ago.

At Pittsburgh on the 23d Michael Fitzhenry was almost instantly killed and his brother John probably fatally injured by the breaching of a sealoff on which they were standing painting one of the towers of the Twenty-second street bridge. They fell about 40 feet to a concrete floor.

The dead body of Caspar Fubert, a sculptor whose works brought him fame and who was engaged on the Dewey arch to be erected in New York, was found in his studio in New York by one of his workmen on the 23d. He had suffered a stroke of apoplexy. He had just finished his last great work, a statue of Admiral Semmes, of the Confederate navy, the commander of the cruiser Alabama.

Plans are being perfected for the organization of a $50,000,000 dry goods corporation in New York City to control and operate dry goods and department stores throughout the country. The Mercantile Reorganization Co. has recently been incorporated in Trenton, N. J., as a preliminary to creating the big corporation.

Philadelphians have subscribed $22,489 to the Porto Rican relief fund and the relief committee will send another ship load of supplies if the government will provide the vessel.

At Brooklyn, N. Y., the retail butchers have decided to advance the price of meats three to four cents a pound and to join hands with their Manhattan brethren in the war on the beef trust.

For the week ended August 25 the business failures in the United States numbered 163, as compared with 173 for the corresponding period of last year, and 16 in Canada, as against 26 for the same time in 1908.

The United Mine Workers of America are endeavoring to organize the anthracite miners in Pennsylvania, whose union collapsed 20 years ago.

The American Automobile Co. has been organized in New York City to control the manufacture and operation of all the automobiles and aeromotors in which kerosene or gasoline is used, not only in this country but in France, Germany and other countries in continental Europe.

On the 25th Tyne Grove, a farmer residing near Franklin, Pa., fatally shot Edith Dunn, daughter of E. V. Dunn, a neighbor. Miss Dunn returned from a party at 2 o'clock in the morning and, being unable to arouse her parents, went to the Grove residence and knocked. Fearing burglars, Grove ordered her away. Receiving no reply, he fired through the door. The shot took effect in the girl's groin.

On the 26th ult. the glass works of Gill & Co., at Philadelphia, were destroyed by fire. A dozen dwelling houses adjoining the works were damaged by fire and water. Loss $100,000.

The recent conference at New York City between representatives of the Independent Kentucky Distillers and the officers of the Kentucky Distillers and Warehouse Co., one of the constituent companies of the so-called whisky trust, resulted in an agreement to limit the output of bourbon whisky this year to 18,000,000 gallons.

On the 26th ult. Harry D. Elk of Boston, the champion middle distance bicyclist of the world, broke the records for 11, 12, 13, 14 and 15 miles at the Woodside park track, near Philadelphia.

At Catskill, N. Y., on the 26th ult. four men were killed in the Washburn brick yard by the fall of a kiln of brick. The men were buried under 200,000 bricks.

WEST AND SOUTH.

The shortage of harvest hands in the northwest continues. In some localities farmers pay $3 per day and board for field hands. In past years men have been plentiful at $1.75 to $2 per day.

McLean Returns to Ohio.

Cincinnati, Aug. 23.—John R. McLean, democratic aspirant for governor of Ohio, arrived in the city Tuesday. Mr. McLean studiously avoided giving away to reporters any important ideas about the workings of the campaign. He will go to Zanesville on the opening day of the democratic state convention. He says the convention will endorse Bryan and the Chicago platform, and denies that he will be a candidate for the presidency. Asked if he would reside in Cincinnati permanently, he replied: "I have never lived anywhere else. Cincinnati has been my home and I have been in Washington as a newspaper man."

Jones Begins His Campaign.

Toledo, Aug. 25.—Mayor Jones has opened his campaign for governor by sending out great quantities of literature. His list of speakers contains the following names: Rev. Graham Taylor, of Chicago; Hon. John S. Crosby, of New York; N. O. Nelson, of St. Louis; Miss Jane Adams, of Hull house, Chicago; Prof. Herron, of Iowa college; Herbert N. Casson and Prof. Frank Parsons, of the Boston law school. Mayor Jones refuses to allow any convention to be called to nominate a full state ticket. He says he is unwilling to allow a convention to be mixed with his campaign.

Fireman Killed.

Akron, Aug. 26.—A wreck occurred on the Cleveland, Terminal & Valley railroad, near Valley Junction Thursday night. Fireman Mac Crist was instantly killed, and Engineer Saunders, of Cleveland, was so badly injured that he will probably die. He was removed to a hospital at Canton. Two brakemen saved their lives by jumping. Engine No. 39 was running empty into Valley Junction for the night. A drove of cattle was run into on the framework of a bridge. The engine left the track and turned completely over, falling 15 feet below the bridge. Crist was crushed beneath the machinery.

Ohio's Delegates Appointed.

Columbus, Aug. 26.—Gov. Bushnell has appointed the following delegates to represent Ohio in the conference on combinations and trusts to be held in Chicago September 13-16: John Sherman, J. R. Foraker, Charles Foster, M. E. Ingalls, Asa W. Jones, Rev. Washington Gladden, Paul J. Sorg, E. S. Monnett, James E. Neal, C. L. Kurtz, Selwyn N. Owen, I. F. Mack, R. E. McKisson, John P. Jones.

An Engineer Killed.

Toledo, Aug. 24.—Lake Shore passenger train No. 3 was speeding westward early Wednesday morning when, at Newbury Junction, near Toledo, Engineer Simeon Tufts, of Cleveland, saw that the switch was open. The train was going 50 miles an hour and the engineer, seeing only a fearful wreck ahead, reversed the engine, shouted to the fireman and jumped. He was instantly killed.

And the Dog Perished.

Cincinnati, Aug. 24.—A gasoline stove explosion in a house in the West End occupied by a family named Zeibert, Wednesday, caused a $25,000 blaze. A dog in the kitchen gave the alarm by barking and probably saved the neighborhood from a great conflagration, as it was built up of frame structures. The dog was burned to death.

May Go to Welcome Dewey.

Columbus, Aug. 26.—It is believed by military officials here that Ohio national guardsmen will be sent to New York to participate in the welcoming of Admiral Dewey. The regiments that will probably be sent are the Fourth, Fifth, Eighth and Sixth, a provisional regiment, the Ninth battalion, the Cleveland troop of cavalry and four batteries of artillery.

Rabies Among Cattle.

Lima, Aug. 26.—The southeastern part of this county, in the vicinity of Harrod, is greatly excited over the appearance of rabies among several herds of cows in that section. Several weeks ago a mad dog dashed through that part of the country, biting several cows, which have since developed the disease and a number have died.

Will Go Out of the Saloon Business.

Cincinnati, Aug. 25.—The State Brewers' association passed resolutions yesterday practically deciding to go out of the saloon business. The association passed resolutions that no more property would be leased and no more fixtures purchased. They also passed resolutions against the extra $1 war tax on beer.

Old Officers Re-elected.

Newark, Aug. 24.—The fifth annual state convention of the Catholic Foresters adjourned Wednesday. All the old officers, except two trustees, were re-elected. The present membership is 2,606, an increase in the past year of over 30 per cent.

Plans a Huge Rolling Mill.

Toledo, Aug. 26.—Ex-President A. Houston, of the Maumee rolling mills, has announced the plans for a $2,000,000 rolling mill to be erected at Toledo. The mill will be independent. The capital is coming from the east.

Buys Wagons for England's Army.

Cincinnati, Aug. 22.—Col. Bunbury, of the royal artillery, British army, arrived here Monday and occupied himself busily with manufacturers of road wagons. His purpose is to secure contracts for the speedy supply of wagons to the British army.

Poisoned by a Headache Powder.

Toledo, Aug. 22.—Mrs. Eleanor Cunningham, wife of Dr. P. L. Cunningham, yesterday took a headache powder of anti-kamia and in less than an hour was found in her room unconscious. She died last night in horrible agony.

We never realize the value of health until it is gone. When old time strength and vigor are wanting, purify the blood by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla: soon restored appetite, perfect digestion, steady nerves and even temper will prove it is bringing back the glow of perfect health.

A PHILANTHROPIST.

He Was Going to Get Rich and Get Up Something to Cool the People Off.

"Yes, sir," exclaimed the man with a linen duster and a high-crowned straw hat, "I'm going to do it."

"What are you going to do?" asked the policeman to whom the stranger had addressed himself.

"You know," he went on, without heeding the question, "that the summer months are invariably marked by increased outbreaks of all kinds. Men's angry passions seem to rise with the thermometer."

"What were you threatening just now?" asked the policeman, sternly.

"Threatening?"

"Yes. You said you were going to do something. What are you going to do?"

"I'm going to get rich. I'm going to get some steady employment and save up my money and invest it judiciously and get rich. There's no end of good you can do with riches. Rich men are doing a great deal of good now. They establish schools and colleges and libraries and let the people get acquainted with the soothing thoughts of philosophy and the sublimities of science. But in the months of July and August, just as a practical criminologist, have doubtless observed philosophy and science don't work. By the time I have got rich there will be all the colleges and libraries that there will be need of, and I will cap the summit of our civilization with a beautiful marble mausoleum refrigerator in each town, so that when anybody feels his indignation rising he can go there and wander up and down the stately corridors and cool off."

HE SOON GOT WELL.

Landing with the Bootjack on the Leader's Nose Had a Beneficial Effect.

It was a sad scene. The old man lay on his bed, and by his side the faithful wife, holding his hand in hers and forcing back the tears to greet his wandering look with a smile. She spoke words of comfort and of hope. But he felt the cold hand falling on him, and he turned his weary eyes up to her pale, wan face.

"Jennie, dear wife, I am going."

"Oh, no, John, not yet—not yet."

"Yes, dear wife," and he closed his eyes; "the end is near. The world grows dark about me. There is a mist around me that grows thicker and thicker, and there, as through a cloud, I hear the music of angels—sweet and sad."

"No, no, John, dear; that isn't angels; that's the brass band at the corner."

"What?" said the dying man. "Have those scoundrels dared to come here when they know I'm dying? Give me my bootjack. I'll let 'em see."

And in a towering rage the old man jumped from his bed, and before his wife could think he had opened the window and shied the bootjack at the band.

"I've hit that fat leader in the nose!" And he went back to bed and got well.—Tit-Bits.

TOO ZEALOUS.

Whippet was Getting Too Attentive to Business to Please the Boss.

"I wish," said the senior partner to the manager of the executive department, "that you would discharge Whippet, that new man we put on a couple of months ago."

The manager was surprised. He showed up his contentment. He was about to say something, when the head of the firm went on:

"I have made it a rule, as you have doubtless noticed, never to permit any of the men who work in this establishment to beat me here in the morning. For 20 years, I have kept this rule, and watched the employees report for duty."

"Yes," the manager said, "it has become a tradition around the place that you are always the first one here in the morning and the last one to leave at night."

"Exactly. That's why I want you to discharge Whippet."

The manager was about to carry out his order, but turned after he had taken two or three steps and asked:

"Have you caught Whippet shirking? Does he get down to work late in the mornings?"

"No," the old man responded, "he's making me get up before daylight in order to keep him beating him here. I won't have it."—Chicago Times-Herald.

In Technical Terms.

A reporter fell on a slippery pavement the other day. He did not utter "unparliamentary language" as some would have said, but he hit his lips, rubbed down the bruises, and, with a benevolent smile radiating his countenance, remarked:

"We don't cherish any ill will, but for entertaining reading matter commend us to the ordinary notice of the man who ought to sweep this pavement!"—Tit-Bits.

Rule That Works Both Ways.

"I have frequently observed," said the vegetarian, "that when a man lives on beef he becomes something like an ox; if he eats mutton he looks sheepish, and if he eats pork the chances are he will grow swinish."

"Perhaps you are right," said the turtle-footed alderman. "I have also observed that when a man lives on nothing but vegetables he is apt to be pretty small potatoes."—Chicago Evening News.

He—"I know better than to propose to a girl I can't get." She—"Do you?" He—"Yes; she might change her mind."—Town Topics.

I have used Ripans Tablets with so much satisfaction that I can cheerfully recommend them. Have been troubled for about three years with constipation. I could not wear shoes on my feet and only a loose dress. I saw Ripans Tablets advertised in my daily paper, bought some and took them as directed. Have taken them about three weeks and there is such a change! I am not constipated any more and I owe it all to Ripans Tablets. I am thirty-seven years old, have no occupation, only my household duties and nursing my sick husband. He has had the dropsy and I am trying Ripans Tablets for him. He feels some better but it will take some time. He has been sick so long. You may use my letter as you please.

Mrs. MARY GORMAN CLARK.

I have been suffering from constipation ever since I was a little girl. I could never ride in a car or go into a crowded place without getting a headache sick at my stomach. I had taken Ripans Tablets from an aunt of mine who was taking them for constipation of the stomach. He had found such relief from their use she advised me to take them, and I have been doing so ever since. I had the dropsy and I am trying Ripans Tablets for him. He feels some better but it will take some time. He has been sick so long. You may use my letter as you please.

Mrs. J. BROOKS.

My seven-year-old boy suffered with pains in his head, constipation, his feet and legs and abdomen were bloated so I could not wear shoes on my feet and only a loose dress. I saw Ripans Tablets advertised in my daily paper, bought some and took them as directed. Have taken them about three weeks and there is such a change! I am not constipated any more and I owe it all to Ripans Tablets. I am thirty-seven years old, have no occupation, only my household duties and nursing my sick husband. He has had the dropsy and I am trying Ripans Tablets for him. He feels some better but it will take some time. He has been sick so long. You may use my letter as you please.

Mrs. J. BROOKS.

Reading some of the testimonials in favor of Ripans Tablets, I tried them. Ripans Tablets only relieved but actually cured my younger, the headaches have disappeared, bowels are in good condition and he never complains of his stomach. He is now a red, chubby-faced boy. This wonderful change I attribute to Ripans Tablets. I am satisfied that they will benefit any one from the cradle to old age if taken according to directions.
